DICK CHENEY TO HEADLINE JAMES MADISON INSTITUTE POLICY FORUM Vice President to Speak on War on Terror in Orlando

Tallahassee – Vice President Dick Cheney will headline a James Madison Institute Policy Forum on Monday, June 14, at 11:00 a.m. at the Rosen Centre Hotel in Orlando, Florida. Cheney will deliver remarks on the war on terror and other public policy issues.

“It is a great honor to have Vice President Cheney accept our invitation to address members and friends of The James Madison Institute,” said JMI founder J. Stanley Marshall. “The Vice President certainly shares the Institute’s message of limited government, individual liberty, and personal responsibility,” Marshall said.

The James Madison Institute is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research and educational organization, or “think tank.” The Institute’s mission is to keep the citizens of Florida informed about their government and to shape Florida’s future through the advancement of practical free-market ideas on public policy issues. Past JMI speakers have included Margaret Thatcher and William F. Buckley.
